Enzyme additive increases fuel economy and engine performance

Most of today's gasoline and diesel fuels contain 10% ethanol. Ethanol increases the amount of water in your fuel tanks. That causes incomplete fuel combustion and results in poor engine performance, lower fuel efficiency, and gum and varnish buildup in your engine. This Enzyme Fuel Treatment breaks down excess water and cleans the entire fuel delivery system. You'll notice a smoother running engine, less knocking, and better fuel efficiency. Also stabilizes fuel for storage up to 1 year. For any gasoline engine. One 8 oz. bottle treats 48 gallons of gas. Ships via Ground and within the contiguous 48 United States only.
